

14 New Partners Initiative Grants Announced in the Fight Against HIV/AIDS

Power of New Partnerships Against HIV/AIDS

The New Partners Initiative (NPI) announced in 2005 on World AIDS Day, is part of a broader effort within the U.S. President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) to work with new partners, including community and faith-based organizations, enhancing their technical and organizational capacity and ensuring the quality and sustainability of HIV/AIDS programs by building community ownership.

New Grants Announced

The U.S. Government is proud to announce the second round of planned grant awards under the NPI, establishing new partnerships with 14 grants to the following recipients:

American Refugee Committee International (ARC) –
Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA

Baptist AIDS Response Agency (BARA) –
Nairobi, Kenya

CAMFED USA Foundation – San Francisco,
California, USA

Children's Emergency Relief International (CERI) –
Kingwood, Texas, USA

Comprehensive HIV AIDS Management
Programme (CHAMP) – Lusaka, Zambia

Handicap International Rwanda – Surrey,
United Kingdom

Integrated Community Based Initiatives (ICOBI) –
Bushenyi District, Uganda

Matibabu Foundation Kenya – Ugenya, Kenya

St. Boniface Haiti Foundation – Randolph,
Massachusetts, USA

Sophumelela Clinic Incorporated (SCI) –
Eastern Cape, South Africa

Tearfund – Teddington, United Kingdom

THETA – Kampala, Uganda

Woord en Daad – Gorinchem, Netherlands

World Conference of Religions for Peace (WCRP) –
New York, New York, USA

These new partners will join prior NPI grantees announced on World AIDS Day, December 1, 2006, in providing care for people infected and affected by HIV/AIDS, as well as preventing new infections. Several of the organizations will work through networks of local and faith-based organizations, thereby strengthening their capacity as well.

